Dear Colleague,

TrainForTrade E- Learning Course on Statistics of International Trade in Services

Organized jointly by UNSD and UNCTAD in cooperation with WTO 21 October – 29 November 2019

It is my pleasure to invite your office to nominate officials who are responsible for the compilation and analysis of Statistics of International Trade in Services (SITS) in your country to participate in a forthcoming e-learning course. The e-learning course will be conducted from 21 October to 29 November 2019. Nominated officials can self-register on https://tft-reg.unctad.org/en/ (select Trade in Services Statistics - 2019) with the access code 01 WTO. Please note that the registration deadline is 14 October 2019.

The TrainForTrade e-learning course on SITS was developed and produced jointly by UNSD, UNCTAD and WTO in close collaboration with the Inter-Agency Task Force on International Trade Statistics. The course focuses on the following topics: Main Concepts, Pre-requisites for Data Collection and Compilation, Data Sources and Collection, Data Compilation, and Dissemination and Analysis. It was designed mainly for trade data compilers; however, users of trade data can also benefit from the course.

The objective of the course is to enhance the capacity of trade statisticians to apply the most recent internationally agreed recommendations as contained in the Manual on Statistics of International Trade in Services 2010 (MSITS 2010); to define best possible data sources; to set up or enforce collection systems; and to strengthen statistical production processes. Furthermore, the course would raise awareness of SITS and its concepts, enhance statisticians' capacity, and help them to better understand the MSITS 2010.

Attached are the preliminary agenda, detailed course description and instruction memo containing technical requirements, dates and contact information. Your early response will help us in making the necessary arrangements in time. Further detailed information concerning the course will be communicated to registered participant(s) in due course. The course will be conducted in English.

If you have any questions or need any assistance regarding this course, please do not hesitate to contact Mr. Dominique Chantrel (E-mail: dominique.chantrel@un.org, copy to trainfortrade@un.org) or Mr. Markie Muryawan (E-mail: muryawan@un.org).

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you in advance for your attention to this matter and look forward to your positive response and active participation of your nominees in the course.

Yours sincerely,

Stefan Schweinfest Director

United Nations Statistics Division/DESA

COURS DESCRIPTION

	Trade in Services Statistics
OBJECTIVES:	The main objectives of this course are to raise awareness of Trade in Services' Statistics and its concepts, enhance statisticians' ability to do their work, and to help them better understand the manual on Statistics of International Trade in Services (MSITS 2010).
TARGET POPULATION	Primary Target: Compilers and producers of data (Statistics on International trade in services, Balance of Payments, Business statistics, etc):  BoP Statisticians (from Central Banks or National Statistical Institutes), Statistical Officers in Trade and Services National Accountants Business statisticians  Secondary Target: Data users:  Ministries (Tourism, Trade, Economy, Finance) Other industry players (economists, lawyers, etc.)
DURATION	<ul> <li>On-line 6 weeks (4hours a week)</li> <li>Followed by a face-to-face: 4 jours</li> </ul>
MODULES	<ul> <li>Module 1 - Importance of Trade in Services Statistics</li> <li>Module 2 - Setting up pre-requisites for data collection and compilation</li> <li>Module 3 - Data sources and collection</li> <li>Module 4 - Data Compilation (BOP STIS)</li> <li>Module 5 - Data Compilation (FATS)</li> <li>Module 6 - Dissemination and Analysis</li> </ul>
IMPACT	The demand for technical assistance in the compilation of trade in services statistics is evidently strong. This is supported by, the December 2005 WTO Hong Kong Ministeria Declaration, Annex C which referred in para.10 to trade in services statistics. It in particular states that WTO, inter alia, should provide targeted technical assistance: " such assistance should be provided on, inter alia, compiling and analyzing statistical data on trade in services [and] assessing interests in and gains from services trade". The United Nations Statistical Commission in its 2010 report also "encouraged all relevant international agencies and the United Nations regional commissions, especially members of the Task Force, to contribute the implementation of MSITS2010, and recognized the efforts of the International Monetar Fund in capacity-building with regard to balance-of-payments statistics; and recognized the training is particularly important in trade in services statistics because of its methodological complexity." Based on several requests received from the member states and different entities, the Development Statistics and Information Branch, Division on Globalization and Development Strategies, of the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD) initiated discussions with partners from different international institutions on the possibility to develop a common approach in responding to these needs.
